

Congress and the FCC should not place unneeded restrictions on satellite broadcast radio or television content. Satellite broadcasters should be free to deliver local news, traffic, weather or whatever; these clearly serve the public interest. There is no public interest in prohibiting this content.

As far as I'm concerned ,the only purpose of the NAB's petition to restrict satellite radio content is to get an unfair advantage over the NAB's competitors.